SUMMARY

Lyrical Asset Management U.S. Value Equity Fund employs a disciplined and repeatable investment process, selecting approximately thirty-three large- and mid-cap companies believed to be both deeply undervalued and quality businesses. Investments are diversified by industry but concentrated enough to drive differentiated performance. Trading is infrequent, and returns are expected to be relatively tax-efficient. Current and future portfolio holdings are subject to risk. The firm was founded in 2008 and is owned by Managing Partners Andrew Wellington and Jeff Keswin.

An Investor should consider the investment objectives, risk, and charges and expense of the Fund before investing. The prospectus contains this and other information about the Fund. *Effective April 1, 2020, the Investment Advisory Agreement between the Trust, on behalf of the Funds, and Lyrical Asset Management LP (the "Adviser"), as investment adviser to the Funds, has been contractually agreed to be amended to reduce the investment advisory fee payable by each Fund to the Adviser from 1.25% to 0.85% of the average daily net assets of the Fund until April 1, 2024. Also effective April 1, 2020, the Expense Limitation Agreement between the Trust, on behalf of the Funds, and Adviser has been contractually agreed to be amended to reduce each Fund's operating expense limit from 1.79% to 1.24% for each Fund's Investor Class shares until April 1, 2024. Prior to that date, the results included herein reflect the higher management fees then in effect.

^S&P 500® Index is a market capitalization weighted index comprised of 500 widely-held common stocks. You cannot invest directly in the S&P 500® Index. Any indices shown are provided for illustrative purposes only, are unmanaged, reflect reinvestment of income and dividends and do not reflect the impact of advisory fees. Investors cannot invest directly in an index. Comparisons to indexes have limitations because indexes have volatility and other material characteristics that may differ from the composite.

^^The S&P 500® Value Index is a market-capitalization-weighted index developed by Standard and Poor's consisting of those stocks within the S&P 500® Index that exhibit strong value characteristics.

The Fund is subject to investment risks, including, without limitation, equity securities risk, investment adviser risk, credit and interest rate risk. All mutual funds are subject to market risk, including possible loss of principal. As with any mutual fund, there is a risk that you could lose money by investing in the Fund. The Fund is not intended to be a complete investment program and there is no assurance that the Fund will achieve its investment objectives. Please consider the charges, risks, expenses and investment objective, carefully, before investing. Please read the prospectus carefully, before you invest or send money.
